Dear Kate,

Hi! How are you? I finally persuaded my mum to take me shopping yesterday. It was great! I tried (1) in lots of clothes and I was amazed (2) by the choice in all the shops. It reminded me (3) of the time we went shopping when you came to stay. We had a lot of fun, didn't we? +

Anyway, I found one of those jackets that are (4) in fashion at the moment – but I couldn't do it (5) on. I needed a bigger size, but they didn't have any. Oh, well. Maybe I'll have another look (6) at the end of the week. I bought some shoes, though – they're similar (7) to ones you've got, the pink ones. I have them (8) now at the moment and they look great! +

Oh, and you know that old blouse I had? I've changed it (9) to a T-shirt! I cut the sleeves (10) off and now it'll be perfect for the summer. +

I have to go now. Write soon and tell me all your news.

Lots of love,

Olivia

Hello my friend, Jill!

My school list of literature is a little bit long. It has 20 books in it. There are some poetrys and literatures but I don't really like to read them. I am more of a fiction book reader because for me, poetrys are boring. I can not read them without getting disturbed or just get bored. Sometimes I read books but in most cases only if my mother says. I like to read books outside, somewhere in a place where no cars can distract me, like in a park or a forest. Where do you like to read a book?

Okay I've got to go and help my mum.

Your friend,

Alexa
